Part II: THE UNIVERSITY AND ITS COUNCIL

Establishment of the University

4.—(1) This section constitutes and founds for the communities of the Republic of Fiji Islands and any other overseas communities that may wish to receive tertiary education, a University with the name and style of “The Fiji National University”.

(2) The University shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal by the name and style of “The Fiji National University” with power and capacity in that name to sue and be sued, to take, purchase, hold, charge, sell, exchange, demise or otherwise dispose of real and personal property, to invest, lend or borrow money, to enter into contracts, to appoint agents and attorneys, to engage consultants, to fix charges and other terms for services and other facilities it supplies, and subject to this Decree, to perform such other acts as by law bodies corporate that are created by law may do, and the University shall have the constitution and powers and be subject to the provisions in this Decree.

(3) Without limiting subsection (2), the university has the powers given to it under this Decree.

(4) The University may exercise its powers inside or outside the Republic of Fiji Islands.

Object of the University

5.—(1) The object of the University shall be to promote scholarship, research, free inquiry, and academic excellence, and in this process create, disseminate, maintain, and advance knowledge by teaching and other means, for the welfare and needs of the communities mentioned in 4(1) above.

(2) The University shall be concerned with education and training at the post-secondary levels, including education and training at the technical and vocational levels, consistent with international standards of teaching, research, and other academic activities in institutions styled as institutions of higher learning.

- 6.—(1) The University's functions are—
- (a) to provide for, and encourage the creation, advancement and dissemination of knowledge, through scholarship, research and teaching to the standards acceptable by the Council;
 - (b) to provide courses of study or instruction, at the levels of achievement the Council considers appropriate, to meet the needs of the community, including technical and vocational education and training;
 - (c) to confer higher education awards as determined by the Council;
 - (d) to participate in community discourse through the application of knowledge generated and advanced at the university to society, industry, and government in an environment where the rights of all are respected;
 - (e) to perform other functions given to the university under this Decree or under another Decree, or as determined by the Council.
- (2) The University shall have the powers—
- (a) to provide facilities, resources and institutional governance structures that ensure the integrity of the University's academic programmes, and promote the well being of the university's staff, students and other persons undertaking study and research at the university.
 - (b) To prescribe the conditions under which students and persons or categories of persons shall be admitted to the University for the purpose of pursuing any programme or course of study therein, and to ensure that provision is made for the maintenance of the discipline of the students of the University.
 - (c) To appoint persons to and to remove them from such offices instituted, to prescribe the conditions of service of staff and to provide for their discipline.
 - (d) To institute Professorships and other offices of any kind as the University may consider appropriate.
 - (e) To make provision for consultancy, research, design, development, testing and advisory services and for the dissemination of the same in such manner as the University may determine including entering into arrangements with other institutions, bodies, or companies as the University may consider desirable.
 - (f) To affiliate, associate or cooperate with other institutions or bodies with regard to matters pertaining to the well-being of the University and other institutions as may be appropriate in particular situations.
 - (g) To enter into any agreement for the incorporation in the University of any other institution or body and for taking over the rights, properties, and liabilities thereof.
 - (h) To enter into any agreement for the academic association with the University of any other institution or body.
 - (i) To establish awards such as Fellowships, Scholarships, Prizes and other aids for study and research.
 - (j) To examine and accept where appropriate qualifications gained, examinations passed or periods of study spent at other universities and institutions as equivalent to such examinations and periods of study in the University as the University may determine.
 - (k) To grant and confer Degrees, Diplomas, Certificates and other distinctions or awards of study approved by the University to those who have qualified for such grants in accordance with the requirements of the University, and to confer distinctions including Honorary Degrees on approved persons, according to procedures established by the University.
 - (l) To revoke or deprive any persons of Degrees, Diplomas, Certificates, or other distinctions or awards granted or conferred by the University on foundations that the University shall consider to be good cause.
 - (m) To do all such other acts and things whether incidental to the powers aforesaid or not as the University may consider being necessary or expedient in order to further its objects.

Council

7. The Council of the University is hereby established.

Functions of the Council

8. The Council is the university's governing body, and may exercise on behalf of the University, all powers conferred on the University by this Decree.

Powers of the Council

9.—(1) The Council may do anything necessary or convenient to be done for its functions, and for this purpose—

- (a) shall have the custody, control and disposition of all property, funds, fees and investments of the University;
- (b) shall strive to ensure that the University attains the highest standards of excellence in education, training and research;
- (c) shall, from time to time, in respect of the University, prepare, for the approval of the Minister, a statement of objectives, including a corporate plan, and proposed funding for such objectives and plan;
- (d) shall ensure that the University is managed in accordance with the law, and the general principles of good governance and transparency;
- (e) may engage in such joint venture activities as will enable the University to improve its provision of facilities, including the provision of halls of residence, to students;
- (f) may determine fees to be paid or charges to be levied, in respect of programmes and courses or otherwise;
- (g) shall, for the purposes of responsible, effective and efficient use of resources, ensure that systems are established for the co-ordination of activities of the University and for accountability;
- (h) shall provide for maintaining the seal of the University, and make provisions for the use of the seal; and
- (i) shall, subject to the provisions of this Decree, carry out any activity as by law bodies corporate that are created by law carry out do, and do such other things as appear to the Council necessary or expedient for furthering the interests of the University.

Council to promote university's interests

10. The council must act in the way that appears to it most likely to promote the university's interests.

Delegation

11.—(1) Subject to this Decree, there shall be constituted such other institutions or bodies and such committees as the Council may from time to time consider necessary or expedient for the administration of the affairs of the University.

(2) The Council may delegate any of its powers, duties and functions to such institutions and committees or to the Vice Chancellor of the University.

(3) No delegation may prevent the Council from performing any of the functions or exercising any of the powers of the Council. All such delegation is revocable by will.

(4) The Council may, subject to subsection (5) of this section, delegate its powers under this Decree to—

- (a) an appropriately qualified member of the council; or
- (b) an appropriately qualified committee that includes 1 or more members of the council; or
- (c) an appropriately qualified member of the university's staff.

(5) The council may not delegate its power to make university statutes or rules

Membership of the Council

12. The council consists of official members, appointed members, elected members, and co-opted members.

Official members

13.—(1) There shall be 4 official members.

- (2) The official members are—
- (a) the Chancellor
 - (b) the Deputy Chancellor;
 - (c) the Vice-Chancellor; and
 - (d) the Chief Executive Officer of the Ministry responsible for tertiary education.

(3) The official members shall hold office for so long as they continue to occupy the positions by virtue of which they became members.

Appointed Members

14.—(1) There shall be 10 members appointed by the Minister in consultation with the official members, from lists of nominees submitted by the Fiji Institute of Engineers, Fiji Institute of Valuers, Fiji Institute of Accountants, Fiji Hotel Association, Fiji Medical Association, Chamber of Commerce, Fiji Law Society, Fiji Institute of Applied Studies, Fiji Principals Association and Fiji Nurses, Midwives and Nurses Practitioners Board.

(2) The Minister shall call for a list of nominees from each group mentioned in sub-section 14(1) prior to appointments.

- (3) The term of the appointed members of the Council shall be three years.

Elected members

15.—(1) There shall be 8 elected members, comprising—

- (a) 2 heads of the University's Colleges, elected by all the heads of the Colleges;
- (b) 2 members of the university's full-time professorial staff;
- (c) 2 members of the university's full-time non-professorial academic staff; and
- (d) 2 representatives of the University's full-time students, other than persons eligible for membership under paragraph (a) or (b).

(2) Each elected member is to be elected by a ballot at which—

- (a) for elected members mentioned in subsection (1)(a) all the members of the full-time professorial staff may vote; or
- (b) for elected members mentioned in subsection (1)(b) all the members of the full-time academic staff may vote; or
- (c) for elected members mentioned in subsection (1)(c) and (d) all the full-time students may vote.

(3) The term of elected members under subsection 1(a) and 1(b) shall be three years, and for the elected members under subsection 1(c) and 1(d) shall be one year, from the first scheduled meeting after the date of election. An elected member may be re-elected for subsequent periods.

Co-opted members

16.—(1) There shall be up to 6 co-opted members who must not be students or full-time members of the University's academic or general staff, but who shall be persons of commercial, academic and professional eminence.

(2) Co-opted members shall have the same rights and privileges as official, appointed or elected members.

(3) The term of co-opted members of the Council shall be three years from the first scheduled meeting after the date of appointment. The term of a co-opted member may be renewed by the Council for a maximum of two additional terms.

Failure to Make Nominations in accordance to section 14(2)

17. If an entity empowered to make nominations to the Minister under section 14(2) does not make any nomination by the date fixed by the Minister by a reminder letter given to the entity, the Minister, in consultation with the Council, may appoint to the Council any member of the entity in place of the nominated member.

Failure to Elect Elected Members

18. If a group permitted to elect elected members under section 15(2) ,does not elect any or enough persons or elected members by a date fixed by the Council by written notice given to the group, the Minister, on the advice of the Council, may appoint equal number of such members.

Dealing with casual vacancy

19.—(1) If a casual vacancy arises in the office of an appointed member, the Minister shall appoint a replacement from the list of nominees called by the Minister from the group from which the departing member was appointed.

(2) If a casual vacancy arises in the office of an elected member and the elected member was elected by a ballot under section 15(2), the Council must appoint to the office the one person, if any, who received the highest number of votes of all the candidates who were not elected if the candidate is willing to perform the functions of a member.

(3) A person appointed or elected to fill a casual vacancy in the office of a member is appointed or elected for the balance of the term of office of the person's predecessor.

Ineligibility for Membership of Council

20. A person is not eligible to become a co-opted, appointed or elected member if —

- (a) the person was duly declared bankrupt by the Courts, or
- (b) the person has been duly convicted and jailed for a period exceeding 9 months.

Vacation of Office

21. The office of an appointed, elected or co-opted member becomes vacant if—

- (a) the member dies; or
- (b) for the co-opted or elected member the member ceases to be an eligible person for the entity that elected or appointed the person; or
- (c) the member is absent without the Council's leave and without reasonable excuse from every meeting of the Council in a period of 9 months; or
- (d) the member becomes an official member; or
- (e) the member resigns from office by signed written notice given to the appointing authority if an appointed member or to the Chairperson of the Council if an elected or a co-opted member, or
- (f) the member is removed from office under section 23.

Member's Function and Obligations

22.—(1) A member has the function of ensuring the council performs its functions and exercises its powers appropriately, effectively and efficiently.

(2) In performing the function, a member is obliged to each of the following—

- (a) act honestly and in the best interests of the University;
- (b) exercise reasonable skill, care and diligence;
- (c) disclose to the Council any conflict that may arise between the member's personal interests and the interests of the University;
- (d) not make improper use of his or her position as a member, or of information acquired because of his or her position as a member, to gain, directly or indirectly, an advantage for the member or another person.

Council may Remove a Member from Office

23.—(1) Any member of the Council, other than the members of the staff of the University, may be removed from office by the Council for good cause.

(2) "Good cause" when used in reference to removal from office means:

- (a) the member has not complied with section 22(2)
- (b) conviction for any offence which the Council considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit for the execution of the duties of his office; or
- (c) any physical or mental incapacity which the Council considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit to continue to hold his office, or

- (d) conduct of a nature which the Council considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit to continue to hold his office; or
- (e) conduct which the Council considers to be such as to constitute failure or inability of the person concerned to perform the duties of his office or to comply with the conditions of his office.

(3) To remove a person as a member of the Council, a two-thirds majority of the Council members should agree to the removal in a duly constituted meeting called where the removal of the member is listed as an agenda item and where the member is given a reasonable opportunity to be heard by the Council before the vote on the matter.

(4) If the Council decides to remove a member from office under subsection (3), the Council must as soon as practicable but no later than 14 days from the date of the decision, inform the appointing authority if the member was an appointed member, or the body electing the member if the member was an elected member.

Meetings of the Council

24.—(1) The Chancellor must preside at meetings of the Council. In the absence of the Chancellor from a meeting of the Council or if the office is vacant, the Deputy Chancellor shall preside at the meeting. If both, the Chancellor and the Deputy Chancellor are absent from a meeting of the Council, or the offices are vacant, the members present must elect a member to preside at the meeting.

Conduct of meetings

25.—(1) A quorum exists at a meeting of the Council if at least half its members, of which at least 2 shall be official members, at least 5 shall be appointed members and at least 2 shall be elected members, are present.

(2) The Council may otherwise regulate its proceedings as it considers appropriate.

(3) No decision of the Council or act done in pursuance to section 25(1) and (2) shall be invalid by reason of vacancy in the office of a member of the Council or on the ground of any defect in the election, nomination, or appointment of any such member.

Protection of members of the Council

26.—(1) No action, suit or other proceeding shall be instituted against any member of the Council personally in respect of any act done in good faith or made by the member in execution or intended execution of any function of the Council under this Decree.

(2) Where a member of the Council is exempt from liability for an act or omission by reason only of subsection (1), the Council shall be liable for the act or omission to the extent that it would be if the member were the Council's employee or agent.

Part III—OFFICERS OF THE UNIVERSITY

Members of the University

27.—(1) The following persons shall be members of the University—

- (a) The Chancellor, the Deputy Chancellor, and the Vice Chancellor
- (b) The Members of the Council;
- (c) The Members of the Senate;
- (d) The Members of the Academic Staff;
- (e) Such administrative and technical staff as the Council may determine;
- (f) The Graduates of the University;
- (g) The Students of the University;

The Chancellor

28.—(1) There shall be a Chancellor of the University who shall be the Chairperson of the University Council.

(2) The Chancellor shall be appointed by the Minister, in consultation with the Council, and shall hold office for terms of up to 3 years. The Chancellor shall be eligible for reappointment, but shall not hold office for more than 3 consecutive terms.

The Deputy Chancellor

29.—(1) There shall be a Deputy Chancellor of the University, who shall be appointed by the Council.

(2) The Deputy Chancellor shall hold office for a period of 3 years. The Deputy Chancellor shall be eligible for reappointment, but shall not hold office for more than 3 consecutive terms.

(3) If a person who is not a member of the Council is appointed to be the Deputy Chancellor, he or she shall on appointment become a member of the Council.

(4) The Deputy Chancellor shall be the vice-chairman of the University Council.

The Vice-Chancellor

30.—(1) The Vice-Chancellor shall be appointed by the Council and shall hold office for such period and under such terms and conditions as the Council may determine.

(2) The Vice-Chancellor is the chief executive officer of the university and may exercise the powers and perform the functions conferred on the Vice-Chancellor by this Decree or another Act or by the Council. The Vice-Chancellor shall have a general responsibility to the Council for managing the University, and for maintaining and promoting the efficiency and good order of the University. He or she shall make a report annually to the Council on the working of the University.

(3) Subject to the directions of the Council, for the purposes of carrying out the daily functions of the Council under this Decree, the Vice Chancellor has the power to appoint, discipline, suspend or dismiss staff based on reasonable grounds.

(4) The Vice-Chancellor shall be empowered to draw up regulations in the interest of good governance, ethical standards and good name of the University in situations of emergencies, and take action on behalf of the University Council that is urgent in nature.

(5) The Vice-Chancellor may delegate powers of the Vice-Chancellor under this Decree or another Act to an appropriately qualified member of the University's staff.

(6) The Vice-Chancellor may resign by giving due written notice to the Council as stipulated in his/her terms and conditions of employment.

Other Officers

31. The Council must ensure that policies are put in place to appoint such other officers as necessary for efficient functioning of the University, including, but not restricted to, the appointment of an officer with responsibility for ensuring at all times an appropriate balance between academic education and technical/vocational education and training.

Part IV — BODIES OF OR CONNECTED WITH THE UNIVERSITY

Establishment of the University Senate

32.—(1) This section establishes the University Senate.

(2) Subject to the powers, duties and functions of the Council as provided in this Decree, the Senate shall be responsible for the teaching, research and other academic work of the University and for the regulation and superintendence of the education, training and discipline of the students of the University.

(3) The Senate must—

- (a) advise the Council about teaching, scholarship and research matters concerning the university;
- (b) formulate proposals for the academic policies of the University;
- (c) monitor the academic activities of the University; and
- (d) promote and encourage scholarship and research at the University.

(4) The Senate may establish academic boards for colleges, faculties and schools to regulate the academic affairs of the respective college, faculty and school, and to advise the Senate on academic affairs of the colleges, faculties and schools.

(5) The membership of the Senate shall be as approved by the Council on the recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor, but shall, in all cases, include—

- (a) the Vice-Chancellor
- (b) all officers of the University responsible for academic affairs of the University who are above the rank of a head of a college.
- (c) all heads of the University's Colleges, Faculties, Schools, and Centres and Institutes;
- (d) a number, to be determined by the Council periodically, of professors of the University to be elected by the full-time professorial staff of the University on a biennial basis;
- (e) the University Librarian;
- (f) 2 non-professorial members of the full-time academic staff elected by the full-time academic staff of the University on a biennial basis.
- (g) 2 student representatives elected from amongst the community of full-time University students by the full-time students of the University on a biennial basis.
- (h) The officer responsible for the administration of the Academic Office of the University.

Chairperson of the Senate

33. The Senate shall be chaired by the Vice Chancellor.

Establishment of Colleges

34.—(1) The Council may establish such Colleges, Faculties, Schools, and Institutes of the University as are necessary to achieve the objects of the University.

(2) The Council may affiliate existing or new colleges or academic institutions with the University by resolution.

(3) The Council may establish an advisory board for each College, and decide its membership and functions.

Academic Structure of the University

35.—(1) There shall be Faculties and/or Divisions and/or Colleges in the University as the Council shall approve.

(2) The Senate shall determine from time to time the composition of each School or Faculty or Division or College and its academic and administrative organisation.

(3) There shall be such Institutes and Centres of the University as the Council after consultation with the Senate shall from time to time determine.

(4) There may be such other academic units as the Senate shall from time to time determine.

Part V—UNIVERSITY FINANCES

Funds of the University

36.—(1) The funds of the University shall consist of—

- (a) moneys appropriated by Parliament to finance the University;
- (b) moneys earned by the University through fees, fines and levies, and in consequence of its entrepreneurial activities;
- (c) donations or contributions from any source;
- (d) moneys borrowed by the University; and
- (e) interest on investments.

(2) The Vice Chancellor shall be the accounting officer for the University.

Budget

37.—(1) The Council shall, in each year, adopt a budget for the University for the next year.

(2) The Council shall ensure that the University operates within its budget, and under no circumstance becomes insolvent or financially paralysed.

University's Financial Year

38. The University's financial year is a calendar year.

Auditing of accounts and annual reports

39.—(1) The Council shall cause proper accounts of the financial affairs of the University to be maintained and has the power to appoint an auditor to carry out an annual auditing of its accounts and other financial statements.

(2) The Council shall prepare an annual report of the University for its operations for the preceding year and shall submit the report, including its audited accounts, to the Minister before 30 June in each year.

(3) The Minister shall, as soon as practicable after receiving the report of the Council, lay such report before both Houses of the Parliament.

Part VI—MISCELLANEOUS

Making of University Regulations

40. Subject to the provisions of this Decree and any other law in Fiji, the Council may make regulations for the efficient management and good governance of the academic, administrative and financial affairs of the University.

Non-Discrimination

41. No person shall be discriminated against based on his or her religion, ethnic, gender or political alliance, to prevent such person from being entitled to be admitted as a member, professor, teacher or student of the University, or to hold office therein, or to graduate or to hold any advantage or privilege attached.

Academic freedom

42.—(1) The Council must ensure that academic freedom is preserved and enhanced at the University.

(2) “Academic freedom” means the freedom of the University, within the law, including the best traditions of the academia, and the highest ethical standards—

- (a) to employ and to determine the terms and conditions of its staff;
- (b) for the University to regulate the content of subjects taught at the University, and to determine the mode of teaching and assessment that best promotes learning, and
- (c) for staff and students to question and test received wisdom, to put forward new ideas and to state controversial or unpopular opinions within the best traditions of advancing such ideas, and to engage in research and publication.

(3) In the performance of their functions, the Council and Management of the University, as well as policy, and authorities and agents of the state, shall always act in ways that are consistent with promoting academic freedom at the University.

Part VII—TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Operation of the Fiji University Constituent Institutions to Commencement Date

43.—(1) The Fiji School of Medicine Act 1997 and Fiji Institute of Technology Act 2006 shall be deemed to be repealed on the commencement date of this Decree.

(2) Any term or condition of appointment of a member of the Council or Board of the Fiji Institute of Technology and the Fiji School of Medicine, and any appointment made to any committee or sub-committee of the Fiji Institute of Technology Council or the Fiji School of Medicine Council, shall be deemed to lapse on the commencement date of this Decree.

(3) This Decree deems the academic and administrative decisions made by the Councils of the Fiji Institute of Technology and the Fiji School of Medicine to the commencement date of this Decree, as made under the provisions of this Decree to the extent that the decisions are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Decree or do not undermine the decision making powers conferred on the Council, the Senate or other officers of the University established under this Decree.

Assets and Liabilities

44. Within one year after the commencement date —

- (a) the assets and liabilities of the Fiji Institute of Technology, Fiji School of Medicine, Fiji School of Nursing, the Fiji College of Agriculture, the Fiji College of Advanced Education and the Lautoka Teachers College shall be vested as the assets and liabilities of the Fiji National University;

- (b) the transfer of all leases on which the Fiji Institute of Technology, Fiji School of Medicine, Fiji School of Nursing, the Fiji College of Agriculture, the Fiji College of Advanced Education and the Lautoka Teachers College shall be deemed to have taken place without any compensation to be paid to the constituent institution.

Contracts

45. Any contract, all guarantees, undertakings and securities entered into by or on behalf of the Fiji Institute of Technology, Fiji School of Medicine, Fiji School of Nursing, Fiji College of Agriculture, the Fiji College of Advanced Education and the Lautoka Teachers College immediately before the commencement date, are taken to have been entered into or given by or to the Fiji National University and may be enforced against or by the Fiji National University.

Staff Rights and Entitlements

46.—(1) On the commencement date, all tenured/permanent employees of the Fiji Institute of Technology, Fiji School of Medicine, Fiji School of Nursing, the Fiji College of Agriculture, the Fiji College of Advanced Education and the Lautoka Teachers College shall be deemed to be employed by the Fiji National University on the same terms and conditions on which each such person was employed prior to the commencement date.

(2) On the commencement date, all contracted employees of the Fiji Institute of Technology, Fiji School of Medicine, Fiji School of Nursing, the Fiji College of Agriculture, the Fiji College of Advanced Education and the Lautoka Teachers College shall be deemed to be employed by the University for the balance of their contractual terms on the same terms and conditions on which the person was employed by the former entity, and thereafter, to be employed under the terms and conditions of employment of the University.

(3) All rights, including leave entitlements, accrued or accruing to the person as a staff member of the former entity up to the commencement date, shall be maintained by the staff after the commencement date if at the commencement date, the staff member of the former entity chooses to maintain employment with the University.

(4) Section 46 subsections (1) to (3) are valid to the extent that there is no change in terms and conditions of any category of staff, including leave entitlements, that are outside the respective institution's budgetary and financial provisions, or that are designed to take advantage of the merger of the institutions.

(5) The Minister may give policy directives to the Council, as he or she deems necessary, in relation to the terms and conditions of employment of the staff of the Fiji Institute of Technology, Fiji School of Medicine, Fiji School of Nursing, the Fiji College of Agriculture, the Fiji College of Advanced Education and the Lautoka Teachers College on the commencement date of the University.

Transitory Council

47.—(1) During the period from the commencement date up until December 2010, the Minister may appoint a Transitory Council of the University that may consist of—

- (i) the members of the Interim Council to deal with the establishment of the Fiji National University;
- (ii) the Industry and Institutional representatives on the Councils appointed under the Fiji Institute of Technology Act 2006 and Fiji School of Medicine Act 1997;
- (iii) the ministerial representatives on the Councils appointed under the Fiji Institute of Technology Act 2006 and Fiji School of Medicine Act 1997; and
- (iv) any other person or persons that the Minister may determine to be appointed as members.

(2) the Transitory Council shall appoint its own chairperson, and determine the procedures for the conduct of its activities.

Given Under my hand this 27th day of October 2009.

E. NAILATIKAU
Vice-President of the Republic of Fiji
