4 Acts binds Republic

This Act binds the Republic.

PART 2 – ADMINISTRATION

5 Funeral, Burial and Cremation Committee

A Funeral, Burial and Cremation Committee is established.

6 Membership

- (1) The Committee shall consist of the Secretary for Land Management as the Chairperson and representatives from the following:
 - (b) the Department of Health;
 - (c) the Department of Justice;
 - (d) the Department of Finance;
 - (e) the Nauru Police Force; and
 - (f) the Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages.
- (2) The Heads of Departments shall nominate to the Chairperson his or her representative in the Committee:
 - (a) an employee of the Department at the commencement of this Act; and
 - (b) an employee in January of each successive year or where the nominated employee resigns or transfers from the respective Department.

7 Functions of the Committee

The functions of the Committee are to advise and make recommendations to the Minister on:

- (a) applications for burials and cremations where necessary;
- (b) the development and implementation of policies relating to funerals, burials and cremations;
- (c) the design and the construction of a crematorium;
- (d) developing policies for the designation and use of burial grounds and crematorium;

- (e) developing policies for the disposal of ashes and other remains after cremations;
- (f) the opening of new burial grounds or crematorium; and
- (g) such other directions given by the Minister.

8 Meetings

- (1) Meetings of the Committee shall be convened by the Chairperson and in his or her absence a nominated representative of the Chairperson.
- (2) The Chairperson shall keep minutes of all meetings of the Committee.
- (3) The Committee may establish its own practice and procedure for its meetings.

PART 3 – BURIAL OR CREMATION PROCEDURE

9 Persons in control of funerals, burials or cremations

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), the control of the disposal of human remains by burial or cremation vest in the following persons in order of priority:
 - (a) the spouse of the deceased;
 - (b) the adult child of the deceased;
 - (c) the parents of the deceased;
 - (d) the adult siblings of the deceased; or
 - (e) where the deceased is a minor or still born child, the parents or the guardians.
- (2) Where the person at the top of the order of priority in subsection (1) is unavailable or unwilling to give instructions, the right to give instructions passes to the person who is next in the order of priority.
- (3) Where a person prior to his or her death makes a testamentary instrument providing for the mode of disposal of his or her remains and by any specified person, the instructions contained in the testamentary instrument shall prevail over subsection (1).

10 Prerequisite for burial or cremation

A person in control shall not dispose of any human remains unless:

- (a) an appropriate health practitioner has given notice of a certificate of death of the deceased; and
- (b) the death of the deceased person has been registered by the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages; and

- (c) where an inquest is to be held into the death, the body is disposed of in accordance with an authority given by the coroner; and
- (d) where the deceased died of any infectious or contagious disease, the corpse shall be placed and sealed in a body bag and transferred directly from the hospital or place of death to the burial ground or crematorium.

11 Person to provide information to Registrar of Births Deaths and Marriages

Where a person conducts a burial or in any other way disposes of human remains, he or she shall provide to the Registrar of Birth Deaths and Marriages:

- (a) a declaration, signed by at least two reputable persons who witnessed the burial or other disposal, stating that the burial or other disposal, has been duly carried out; and
- (b) where the death has not been registered – such information as the Registrar of Birth Deaths and Marriages requires for the purpose of registering the death.

12 Disposal of human remains within 24 hours

A person in control shall dispose of the human remains within 24 hours from:

- (a) receiving the human remains from the hospital; or
- (b) the time of the death where the death occurs at home and an appropriate health practitioner has certified the death without taking the deceased to the hospital; and
- (c) compliance with section 10 (b).

13 Removal of human remains from the Republic

(1) A person in control shall not transport or remove any human remains from the Republic without:

PART 10 – MISCELLANEOUS

54 Still born child

A still born child shall not be buried, cremated or otherwise disposed of unless the person in control of the disposal has obtained:

- (a) a written certificate relating to the cause of death signed:
 - (i) by an appropriate health practitioner who was present at the birth or who examined the child after birth;
 - (ii) if no appropriate health practitioner was present at the birth or examined the child after birth, by a midwife;

- (b) a statutory declaration made by the person in charge of the disposal to notify the Authority that the child was stillborn:
 - (i) no appropriate health practitioner or midwife was present at the death;
 - (ii) it is impossible to obtain a certificate required under subparagraph (a).

55 Health practitioner certificate in relation to illness

- (1) A health practitioner who attended the person during the illness shall if satisfied that the person's death was a natural consequence of the illness, give a certificate for the death immediately after he or she learns of the death.
- (2) An appropriate health practitioner other than the health practitioner who attended to the person during the illness may give a certificate of death if satisfied that the person's death was a natural consequence of the illness and that:
 - (a) the health practitioner who last attended the person during the illness is unavailable;
 - (b) less than 12 hours has passed since the death and the health practitioner who last attended the person during the illness is to the knowledge of the hospital that the health practitioner is unable to give a certificate; or
 - (c) 12 hours or more has passed since the death and the health practitioner who last attended the person during the illness has not given a report.

56 Health practitioner certificate in case of accident or injury

- (1) A health practitioner may give a certificate of death of a person even though a death may have been reported to the Nauru Police Force:
 - (a) in relation to an accident;
 - (b) where there is suspicion of any crime.
- (2) The certificate shall contain the cause of death.

57 Burial or cremation of a destitute person

- (1) Where the corpse of a person remains in the mortuary by reason that no claim or request has been made for the burial or cremation of a destitute person, the Authority may bury or cremate such person.
- (2) The Authority shall obtain an Order of the District Court before the disposal of the unclaimed human remains.
- (3) Where a person is known or believed to have belonged to a particular religious denomination, the Authority shall dispose of the human remains in accordance with the religious rites.

58 False or misleading information

- (1) A person shall not make a statement that is false or misleading in a material particular whether by reason of the inclusion or omission of any particular information provided under this Act.
- (2) A person who fails to comply with subsection (1) commits an offence and upon conviction is liable to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years.

59 Delegation

The Minister may delegate any of his or her functions or powers under this Act to another person unless expressly provided under any regulations.

60 Jurisdiction of the court

The District Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all offences under this Act and, shall have power to impose the penalty or punishment in respect of the offences under this Act.

61 Evidentiary presumption

In proceedings for an offence under this Act, an apparently genuine document purporting to be a certificate signed by the Minister certifying a matter relating to a delegation, approval or authorisation under this Act is, in the absence of proof to the contrary, proof of the matters so certified.

62 Regulations

- (1) The Cabinet may make regulations prescribing all matters that are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for giving effect to this Act.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the regulations may provide for:
 - (a) any forms that are required under this Act;
 - (b) the fees for any applications or services that are required to be paid under this Act; and
 - (c) any other matters.

PART 11 – REPEAL AND SAVINGS

63 Repeals
