

INDEPENDENT STATE OF PAPUA NEW GUINEA.

CHAPTER NO. 1020.

Roman Catholic Mission, Kavieng Property Trust.

GENERAL ANNOTATION.

ADMINISTRATION.

Since this Act is really of the nature of a private Act, and since, for example, no need was seen in the fairly comprehensive allocation of responsibilities for the administration of legislation published in National Gazette No. G15 of 13 February 1976 to allocate responsibility for this and similar Acts, there seems to be no point in attempting to discuss the administration of this Chapter. Under Section 148(2) of the Constitution, political responsibility would seem to be vested in the Prime Minister.

“Mission” means the Catholic Mission Society of the Sacred Heart of Jesus (Kavieng Vicariate), whether called by that name or any other name;

“Mission property” includes all property situated in the Manus or New Ireland Province or in the Duke of York Islands in the East New Britain Province that, immediately before 6 August 1959 (being the date of commencement of the pre-Independence Catholic Mission, Kavieng Property Trust Act 1959), was vested in The Sacred Heart Mission (New Britain) Property Trust and—

(a) all churches, dwellings and other buildings; and

(b) all freehold and leasehold lands and premises; and

(c) all personal property,

in the country, belonging to or used in connexion with the Mission and vested in any person as trustee, and all property acquired by the corporation under this Act;

“The Sacred Heart Mission (New Britain) Property Trust” means The Sacred Heart Mission (New Britain) Property Trust constituted under the pre-Independence Roman Catholic (Sacred Heart Mission) Property Trust Ordinance 1937 of the former Territory of New Guinea.

4. Powers of corporation.

The corporation has power—

- (a) to purchase, take on lease, acquire by gift, devise, exchange or otherwise, property in the country; and
- (b) to sell the Mission property or any part of it, together or in parcels, by public auction or private contract, for cash or on credit, on such terms and subject to such conditions as the corporation thinks proper; and
- (c) to exchange the property or any part of it for other property; and
- (d) to transfer and assure the property when sold or exchanged to the purchaser or to the person taking the exchange, freed and discharged from any trusts affecting it; and

- (h) to appoint by instrument under the seal of the corporation any person as the attorney of the corporation, generally or in respect of specified matters, and to act in any place, and all deeds signed by the attorney on behalf of the corporation and under his seal are binding on the corporation and have the same effect as if they were under the seal of the corporation.

5. Rents, etc.

A lessee, mortgagee, purchaser, person taking on exchange or other person paying rent or other money to the corporation is not bound to see to the application of the rent or other money, and the receipt of the corporation or of the Head of the Mission is a sufficient discharge.

6. Seal of corporation.

The Head of the Mission shall provide for the safe custody of the seal of the corporation, and every instrument to which the seal is affixed shall be signed by the Head of the Mission.

7. Conditions of grant, etc.
