No. 4 of 1920.

REGULATIONS

Made under The Public Service Ordinance of 1907 (No. 11 of 1907).

RETIREMENT OF OFFICERS.

1. (1) If any officer continues in the Public Service after he has attained the age of sixty years he may at any time before he attains the age of sixty-five years be called upon by the Lieutenant-Governor—subject to paragraph (2) of this Regulation—to retire from the Public Service, and every such officer so called upon to retire shall retire accordingly.

(2) When the Lieutenant-Governor is the officer concerned the power of calling upon him to retire, in the circumstances set out in paragraph (1) of this Regulation, may be exercised by the Governor-General.

2. Every officer shall retire from the Public Service on attaining the age of sixty-five years unless he is required to continue to perform his duty in the Public Service, as hereinafter provided, and is able and willing so to do.

3. Notwithstanding that an officer has attained the age of sixty-five years, if it appears to the Governor-General that in the interests of the Public Service it is desirable that such officer should continue in the performance of the duties of his office, or of any office in the Public Service to which he may be appointed, and that such officer is able and willing to do so, the Governor-General may direct such officer to continue in the Public Service for such fixed time not exceeding twelve months as the Governor-General from time to time in each case directs, or during pleasure.

Made in Executive Council this twenty-first day of June, One thousand nine hundred and twenty.
