(b) For a second or subsequent offence, a fine not exceeding K100,000.00 and confiscation of the vessel.

(2) Where a person is charged with an offence under this section, it shall be a defence to prove that—

- (a) the substances or articles were dumped for the purpose of securing the safety of a ship, aircraft or marine structure or of saving life; and
- (b) the person took steps within a reasonable time to inform the prescribed officer that the dumping had taken place and of the locality and circumstances in which it took place and of the nature and quantity of the substances or articles dumped, unless the court is satisfied that the dumping was not necessary for any of the purposes referred to in Paragraph (a) or (b) and was not a reasonable step to take in the circumstances.

(3) Where a person is charged with an offence under Subsection (1)(b), it shall be a defence to prove that the substances or articles were loaded in a Convention State and that the dumping was authorized by permission issued by the responsible authority in that State.

³ Section 3 Subsection (1) amended by No. 73 of 2003, s. 2.

⁴ Section 3 Subsection (1) amended by No. 73 of 2003, s. 2.

(4) A placement of substances or articles made by or on behalf of a harbour authority in the execution of its powers to provide harbour facilities and for a purpose other than their disposal does not constitute dumping for the purposes of this Act.

(5) A deposit made by or with the written consent of the appropriate authority for the purpose of providing moorings or securing aids to navigation does not constitute dumping for the purposes of this Act.

Division 2.

Permits, etc.

4. APPLICATION FOR PERMIT.

(1)^{5 6} Any person may apply to the Authority for a permit to dump.

(2) An application under Subsection (1) shall be on the prescribed form.

(3)^{7 8} The Authority may require an applicant to provide such information and allow such sampling, testing and examination of the substances or articles which he desires to dump, as, in the opinion of the Authority is necessary to enable him to decide whether a permit should be granted and, if so, what conditions should be applied to it.

(4)^{9 10} An applicant shall pay to the Authority—

(a)¹¹ the costs of any tests that, in the opinion of the Authority are necessary to determine whether the permit should be issued, and the conditions (if any) applicable to the permit; and

(b) any expense incurred in connection with any monitoring to determine the effect that dumping may have or has had on the marine environment and the living resources supported by it.

(5) An applicant who, for the purpose of obtaining a permit knowingly or recklessly—

(a) makes a statement; or

(b) produces to the prescribed officer, signs or makes use of a document, that is false or misleading in a material particular, is guilty of an offence.

²⁵ Section 8 Subsection (1) amended by No. 73 of 2003, s. 7.

²⁶ Section 8 Subsection (1) amended by No. 73 of 2003, s. 7.

PART I. – ENFORCEMENT.9. APPOINTMENT OF ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS.

(1)^{27 28}The Authority may appoint a person to be an enforcement officer for the purposes of this Act.

(2)^{29 30}The Authority may, in the instrument appointing a person under this section, specify that the powers and duties of the person are subject to such limitations as are specified in the instrument.

(3) An enforcement officer shall be issued with a certificate of appointment.

10. POWERS OF ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS.

(1) An enforcement officer may–

- (a) at any reasonable time enter any place liable to inspection under this Act and board any vehicle, ship, aircraft, or marine structure with or without persons and equipment to assist him in his duties; and
- (b) open any container and examine and take samples of any substances or articles; and
- (c) examine equipment and require any person in charge of it to do anything which appears to the enforcement officer to be necessary for facilitating examination; and
- (d) require any person to produce any permit, record or other documents which relate to the dumping of substances or articles in the sea and which are in his custody or possession; and
- (e) require any person on board a ship, aircraft or marine structure to produce any records or other documents which relate to it and which are in his custody or possession; and
- (f) take copies of any document produced under Paragraphs (d) and (e).

(2) For the purpose of boarding a vehicle, ship, aircraft or marine structure, an enforcement officer may require the person in charge–

- (a) to do anything which will facilitate boarding; and
- (b) in the case of a ship–to stop it.

(3) An enforcement officer may require the attendance of the master of a ship, the commander of an aircraft or the person in charge of any marine structure on board that ship, aircraft or structure and may make any examination and inquiry which appears to him to be necessary.

(4) If, as a result of an examination and inquiry under Subsection (3), the enforcement officer has reason to believe that the ship or aircraft has been loaded in contravention of this Act the ship or aircraft may be detained until the enforcement officer issues a certificate that he is satisfied that the ship or aircraft may proceed without contravention of this Act.

²⁷ Section 9 Subsection (1) amended by No. 73 of 2003, s. 8.

²⁸ Section 9 Subsection (1) amended by No. 73 of 2003, s. 8.

²⁹ Section 9 Subsection (2) amended by No. 73 of 2003, s. 8.

³⁰ Section 9 Subsection (2) amended by No. 73 of 2003, s. 8.
