CUSTOMS—

- (b) as to the country or place in or at which the goods were made or produced; or
- (c) as to the manufacturer or producer of the goods or the person by whom they were selected, packed, or in any way prepared for the market; or
- (d) as to the mode of manufacturing, producing, selecting, packing, or otherwise preparing the goods; or
- (e) as to the material or ingredients of which the goods are composed, or from which they are derived; or
- (f) as to the goods being the subject of an existing patent, privilege, or copyright, and includes a Customs entry relating to goods; and any mark which according to the custom of the trade or common repute is commonly taken to be an indication of any of the above matters shall be deemed to be a trade description within the meaning of this Ordinance.

“False trade description” means a trade description which, by reason of anything contained therein or omitted therefrom, is false or likely to mislead in a material respect as regards the goods to which it is applied, and includes every alteration of a trade description, whether by way of addition, effacement, or otherwise, which makes the description false or likely to mislead in a material respect.

When false trade description deemed to be applied to goods.

4.—(1.) A trade description shall be deemed to be applied to goods if—

- (a) it is applied to the goods themselves; or
- (b) it is applied to any covering, label, reel, or thing used in connexion with the goods; or
- (c) it is used in any manner likely to lead to the belief that it describes or designates the goods.

(2.) “Covering” includes any stopper, glass, bottle, vessel, box, capsule, case, frame, or wrapper; and “label” includes any band or ticket.

INSPECTION OF IMPORTS AND EXPORTS.

Inspection of imports and exports.

5.—(1.) An officer may inspect and examine all prescribed goods which are imported, or which are entered for export or brought for export to any wharf or place.
