CUSTOMS—

WHEREAS by an Ordinance intituled the Customs Ordinance, 1909-1939, it is amongst other things provided that the Lieutenant-Governor may by Proclamation prohibit the exportation of any goods the exportation of which would in his opinion be harmful to the Territory:

And whereas it is further provided by the said Ordinance that the said power of prohibition shall extend to authorize the prohibition of the exportation of goods generally or to any specified place and either absolutely or so as to allow of the exportation of the goods subject to any condition or restriction:

And whereas I am of opinion that the exportation of any goods (other than goods excepted from the application of this Proclamation) would be harmful to the Territory unless the goods were exported in accordance with this Proclamation:

Now, therefore, I, John Hubert Plunkett Murray, the Lieutenant-Governor aforesaid, do hereby proclaim as follows:—

1. This Proclamation may be cited as the Customs (Overseas Exchange) Proclamation and the Proclamation under the said Ordinance bearing date the 24th October, 1939, and published in Gazette No. 25 of 1st November, 1939, is hereby revoked.

(3) See Section 19(2) of the Ordinance Interpretation Ordinance, 1911-1940.

- (b) the goods are excepted from the application of this Proclamation; or

4. This Proclamation shall apply with respect to the exportation of any goods notwithstanding that a licence or other authority for the exportation of the goods is in force under the provisions of any other law.

5. The grant of a licence under this Proclamation with respect to any goods or the exception of any goods from the application of this Proclamation shall not absolve any person from the obligation to comply with the provisions of any other law relating to the exportation of goods.

6.—(1.) A licence under this Proclamation may be—

- (a) an ordinary licence; or
- (b) a special licence.

(2.) An ordinary licence shall be a licence to export the particular goods specified in the licence in the quantities, in the ship, and from the port so specified.
