National Road Safety Council Act 1997

OPERATIONAL INSTRUCTIONS

I, Hon. Don Polye, Minister for Transport & Civil Aviation and Works by virtue of the powers conferred by Section 45 of the National Road Safety Council Act 1997 and all other powers me enabling, acting with, and in accordance with the advice of the Executive Director for National Road Safety Council Services, hereby fix the date of Road Safety Awareness Campaigns during the normal working hours as the date of this gazettal notice on which the random Roads Safety Awareness Campaigns will come into operation throughout each year. Hence, I hereby schedule the aid of individuals as per the attached list from here forth to be Road Safety Inspectors for the purpose of these awareness campaigns in PNG. Henceforth, the written notice referred to in Section 41 of the Act is herewith to be known and used by the inspectors as NRSC TIN.

The Road Safety Inspectors will be conducting Road Safety Awareness Campaigns as well as Vehicle Integrity Checks on all roads users for the purpose of preventing road accidents. The whole aim of this Awareness Campaigns is to implement the policy functions as stipulated in Section 4(d), (f), (i), (k), (l) and (n) of the NRSC Act.

Any person or agency obstructing these operations or undertaking such operations without the approval of the National Road Safety Council will be in breach of the NRSC Act and liable for a fine of K2,000.00 as stipulated in the Section 46 of the NRSC Act. Henceforth, issuing of NRSC Traffic Infringement Notices (TIN) without the NRSC's authorization will face likely prosecution under the Finance Management Act. Only NRSC has been authorized by the Secretary of the Department of Finance Management to collect NRSC TIN fines for the purposes of Road Safety Campaigns as stipulated in Section 31(e), (f) of the NRSC Act.

The NRSC with a new concept of BONUS payments will pay up to 20% of a completed TIN book relative to only paid TINS, minus any recovery costs, such as vehicle hire, fuel, uniforms, TINS & Receipt books applied if required to its employees, any person or agency engaged anywhere in Papua New Guinea to enforce and to promote road safety thus collect TIN fines as stipulated in Section 4 and Section 26 of the NRSC Act, 1997. The project sustains its operation in terms of resources and logistics.

A person who on being required under this Act to furnish to the Council any NRSC Traffic Infringement Notice or information, fails to comply during this period is guilty of an offence and liable for a fine of K1,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or both.

Dated this 20th day of February, 2008.

Hon. D. POLYE, MP,
Minister for Transport & Civil Aviation and Works.
